'I Hold in My Hand a List of 205 Liquor Stores'

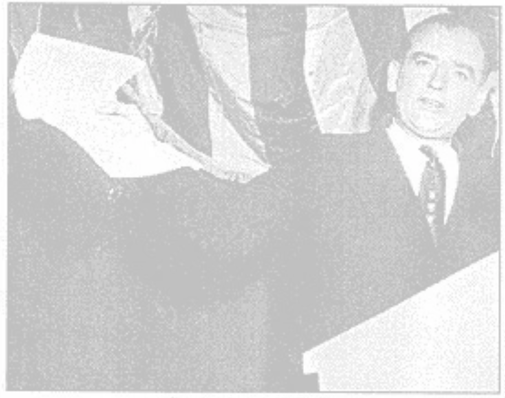
Crusading Lawmaker Vows to Drain 'Every Last Drop' of Commie Beverages



Senator Joseph McCarthy

APPLETON, Wis. — During a speech Wednesday before members of the Wisconsin chapter of the Women's Republican Club, U.S. Sen. Joseph McCarthy (R-Wis.) announced that he is in possession of a list of 205 known liquor stores currently operating in the U.S.

"These Communist plots cannot hide from me, not even in the murky dark glass of a bottle of brandy," he said.

While McCarthy declined to specifically name any of the liquor stores on the list, he assured reporters in attendance that they were all real. He also

Russians Could Be in Possession of Our Moistest Angel-Food Cake Mixes

CIA Finds 350-Page 'Crocker Cookbook' in Hands of Russian Spy

NEW YORK, N.Y. — Failing in their eleventh-hour bid for clemency, Betty and Morty Crocker died in the electric chair at 12:01 a.m. today.

Convicted in August 1950 of culinary espionage for delivering top-secret recipes for vital American cakes, cookies and brownies to Russian bakers, the Crockers were sentenced to death last December.

The Crockers rose to prominence in the 1930s with a line of pre-packaged cake mixes, which they parlayed into a family fortune. In 1948, a federal grand jury accused them of furnishing Soviet authorities with recipes, cooking tips and "highly sensitive serving suggestions," all vital to making American family mealtime more fun.

The major witness against them, Betty's brother David, told of the Crockers' radioing top-secret recipes to Russian agents employed at the Los Alamos Crowd-Pleasin' Bundt Cake project.

After their convictions, Betty Crocker was dismissed from the office of Cakemaster General. To fill the post, President Truman is expected to nominate Duncan Hines.

"America has no sympathy for spies who threaten America's domination of baked goods," said Truman, who had refused to commute their sentence. "In the name of national security, we must send a strong message to those who would put moist, delicious cake in hostile foreign mouths."

The Crockers' defense attorneys attempted to stress the couple's longtime service to American picnics and get-togethers. They also argued that the Crockers' lives should be spared, since dessert is not in itself a proper meal and that, therefore, a lower level of U.S. security was compromised.

This is the first U.S. espionage trial to end in execution since 1922's People of the United States v. Jemima.
